To Whom It May Concern:

This firm represents Girls For A Change, a corporation organized and operated as a charitable organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the “Organization”).

The Organization was originally incorporated in the state of California, and is now in the process of redomesticating to the Commonwealth of Virginia. While this transition process may take between 6-12 months to complete, the charitable mission and day-to-day activities of the Organization will continue unabated during this interim period.
